'Learn Now, Pay Later'

"Learn Now, Pay Later"

That might well be the sales slogan for a new college finance plan proposed by State Assemblyman John L. E. Collier of Los Angeles County.

Collier, who authored the proposed legislation, asks students to reimburse the state over a period of extended time, for a portion of the funds expended for their education.

Collier says that his plan places a financial responsibility where it belongs — with the student. The pay-back proposal is an alternative to tuition proposals and replaces the familiar student loan programs.

Collier says his proposal, which he calls the "Learn, Earn and Reimburse" plan for higher education would allow the student to pay for part of his education out of earnings created by the education by which he is now earning his income.

Such a program is designed to help meet the needs of the ever increasing number of students without raising taxes to do so while maintaining a high level of education.

The plan does not require payment until the student ceases enrollment at the school, or receives a degree and has made a taxable income of at least $6,000 annually by the first 20 years. This, Collier says, places no financial burden on the student.

The $6,000 taxable income represents an annual income of substantially more. In computing taxable income, there should be allowed as a deduction any amount paid by the student to the state under this program. While the student is in school, no interest should be charged on the note.

Any scholarship or loan program will not be affected by this plan, but could be utilized to meet required payments and parents or student can select a pay-as-you-go plan instead of deferring payment.

Payment should be made annually according to a specified progressive schedule based on taxable income with payments changing to meet changing income.

The cost of instruction, according to Collier, is $2,500-$3,000 for four years.

The funds when received, would be deposited to the UC Reimbursement Fund, if the student attended UC, to be used exclusively for the support of the University. Funds attributable to enrollment at State Colleges would be deposited with States Colleges.

The savings created in the General Fund, by not dispersing to University and State Colleges the amount that students have paid, would be channeled back for tax relief.

It is estimated that the proposal will bring in an additional $300 million dollars and if enacted, would be a big step toward solving the financial problems of the taxpayers, students and parents regarding the cost of higher education, Collier says.

NEW EQUIPMENT: Spring Valley Fire Chief Frank Berger (left) indicates the need for new equipment to comply with the county emergency fire net work to William Faulwetter (right), member of the fire department's board of directors. The board approved a $14,100 expenditure to allow the chief to have radios installed in equipment that will be operated on two frequencies. Lemon Grove is also scheduled for new equipment. The Grove department will spend an estimated $11,700 to update their equipment.

Fire Radio System Increases

The Spring Valley Fire Protection District board of directors has put its stamp of approval on a $14,100 request for radio equipment to tie in with the county-wide emergency system.

The department is the fifth one that has indicated that it will participate in the network that requires radio equipment to operate on one of two radio frequencies.

Lemon Grove entered the program weeks ago. They came into the program shortly after the Bonita-Sunnyside Fire Protection district made their move to the network.

Santee approved participation in the program upon the request of their fire chief, Ed Harrison, fire chief in Lakeside indicated that his board of directors would approve that community's participation on Feb. 12.

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley are both members of the Heartland Mutual Aid fire plan. El Cajon, La Mesa,

Fire chiefs in the Heartland

Lakeside and Santee are also members of the group.

El Cajon and La Mesa have been waiting for their city councils to make the final step of approvals for their departments.

La Mesa will have to spend roughly $14,000 while El Cajon would have to put out $17,500 for new equipment.

It is expected that the City of San Diego will approve fire units that surround the outlying areas of the city to receive the new radio equipment.

The Lower Sweetwater Fire Protection District and the Woodlawn Fire District have agreed to take part in the program also.

LOCAL LEADERSHIP

The county board of supervisors recently set aside $94,000 in funds to establish the needed equipment for transmitters and other facilities in order to act as the coordinator of the emergency network.

Fire chiefs in the Heartland

Mutual Aid pact have played an important part in gaining back from other departments in the county to push the program.

The Heartland group met early in August of 1968 in order to lay the necessary groundwork for the system. At that time H. L. Hensley of Lemon Grove and Frank Berger of Spring Valley took part in the discussions held at the La Mesa Fire Department.

Robert O. Sever, La Mesa fire chief took over at the helm in the meeting. He presented Clarence Gish, president of the Fire Chief's Association the proposed program work.

designed by the area chiefs. The county contracted with the Motorola Communications and Electronics Inc., recently for a $451,733 equipment purchase. This will enable local communities to purchase the equipment through a mass basis.

The agreement also calls for county installation of the equipment for the local districts. Most of the communities are financing the program through banks in their own community.

The county is waiting for at least ten communities to take part in the program before they will implement the network.

Retarded Program, Like Old Man River, Keeps Rolling Along

More than twelve hundred generous families will have been listed with the issue of this publication.

This week's list contains 120 families bringing the total to 1,209.

They are those who have taken part in the campaign to provide landscaping for the Home of Guiding Hands, the facility for the mentally retarded at 10025 Los Coches rd., Lakeside.

Each of these families have become a subscriber, or renewed their subscription to this newspaper. Part of the proceeds from this project is supplied to the Home for the landscaping.

It also provides a bigger base for local business firms to get their advertising message to local residents.

An economic study made in this area by the City of San Diego showed that the income for each family here is approximately $10,000 a year. It said that husbands, usually wives, and often, another member of the family were employed to make up the $10,000 total.

Using $10,000 as spendable income, multiplied by 1,209 families that have joined the nearly 10,000 total subscribers, it means that more than $12 million new resource is available to local business people who have a service or who have merchandise to sell.

It also means that the landscaping project at the Home of Guiding Hands is more nearly complete.

Out of Race For Trustee Dryden Says

Robert P. Dryden, long-time trustee of the Grossmont High School Junior College District, said this week that he would not file for the post which expires this year.

Dryden suffered a heart attack late last month and was hospitalized. He is now recuperating at his home at 1764 Swallow dr., El Cajon.

Dryden was manager of the U. S. National Bank when he first ran for the school board. He is now manager for the firm at its Pacific Beach facility.

Higdon Not To Run; Cosby, Buckner Will

A slight shuffle in the make-up of the Lemon Grove school board became apparent this week when Tom Higdon, a six-year member of the board, decided not to seek re-election.

He said that he decided not to make the race about four months ago. He advanced no reason for the decision.

Two other trustees will face re-election. Harry Buckner, a four-time president of the board has served 12 years. He is a member of the California School Board Association Delegate Assembly and on the group's Finance Committee. He is an executive with General Dynamics and lives in Monterey Heights.

Bert Cosby, present president of the board, will also seek re-election. He is serving his 15th year on the board.

All the Cosby youngsters went through the L.G. Elementary system and soon grandchildren will start, he said. Cosby joined the board in July, 1954 soon after he became Golden Ave. PTA representative to the board. He had also served on the Grossmont High School Advisory Board. Cosby is an official with the Pac. Tel. and Tel. Co.

There will be a newcomer to the race this election. Leonard Klee, 48, a civil engineer with the City of San Diego, said he had taken out papers this week.

Klee, who lives at 8043 Darryl st., has been a local resident for 12 years. He is serving presently as president of the L.G. Music Parents Association. He has two children, one girl in L.G. Junior High and the other at Washington State University.

No others have announced intention of running.

February 20 is the deadline for filing.

Election will be at the various schools on April 15.

Meanwhile, decision by the trustees to call an election for override and bonds is awaiting further study.

Last week, at the regular board meeting, trustees were told by District Superintendent Byron Netzel that more rooms will be needed if present residential construction continues. Bonds will be voted on for 15 classrooms if it is indicated that the construction

Moore is a deacon of the First Presbyterian Church of Lemon Grove. He is also a member of the Church Council and Youth Camp Director. He has served on many district committees and training staffs as well as being active in the Sustaining Membership drive. He is a 30 year veteran of scouting in Grossmont District's Troop 108. He, as an Institutional Representative of the troops in the district, received the Order of Merit in 1966. He is a construction foreman for the San Diego Gas and Electric Company. He and his wife Vena have a daughter.

Unusual Experiment Involves Grossmont College, KOGO-TV

San Diego Community Colleges, in cooperation with the San Diego County Junior College Association, will again offer via television, Geology 10: "The Earth and Its Elements," during the spring semester.

In an unusual experiment, the television course has been moved from the ITV outlet, Channel 15, to KOGO-TV Channel 10.

Air time for the TV lectures will be from 6 to 7 a.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays, beginning Feb. 18. The course carries three units of credit.

Clayton H. Brace, General Manager of KOGO, said that the station is pleased to cooperate with the colleges in this venture, which will become one of only a few very known instances where a commercial broadcasting outlet is used in offering courses for college credit through a local institution of higher learning.

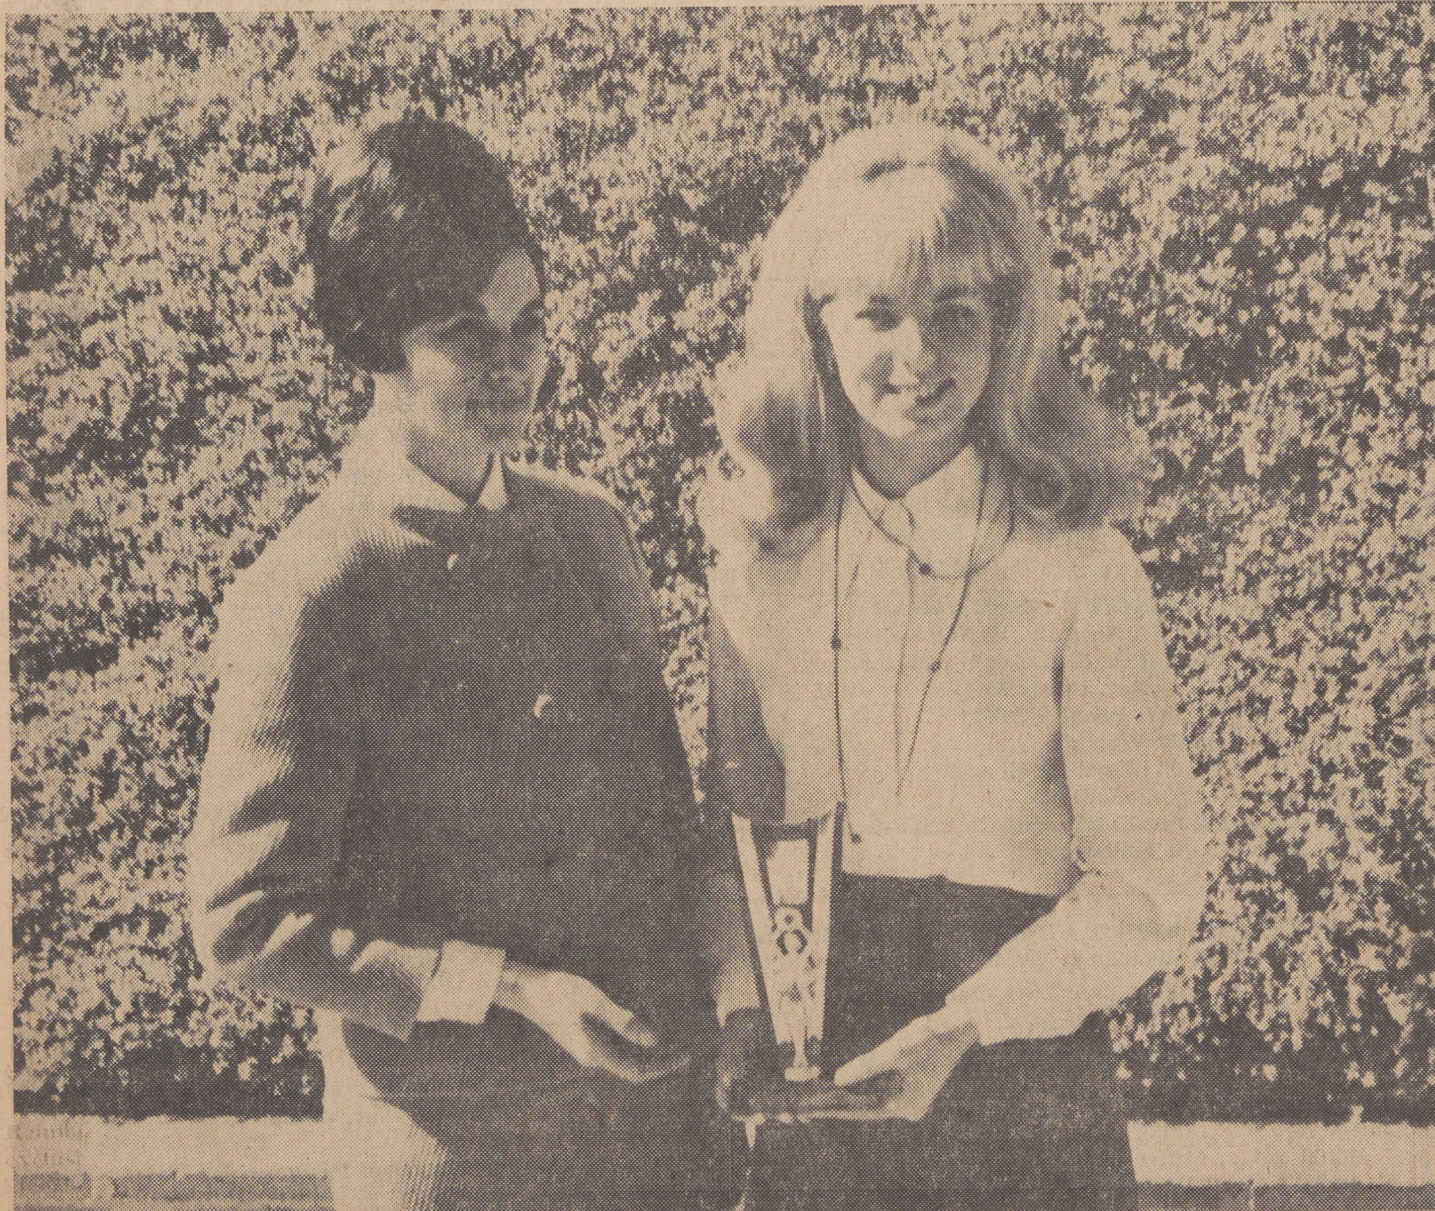

It is believed that this may be the first such venture by any junior college in the nation. KOGO-TV presently offers one other television course for credit through UC-SD Extension. Instructors for the course are Ray C. Resler of Grossmont, and Donald C. Lynn of Southwestern.

Students enrolled for credit will be expected to devote seven hours weekly in required reading and research, in addition to the two hours of televised lectures. There will be two three-hour evening seminars on campus during the semester, and a two-hour final examination will be scheduled at the end of the course. Campus sessions will be held at four locations:

San Diego City College, San Diego Mesa College, Grossmont College, and Southwestern College. Students must enroll in the junior college district of their legal residence.

TV Assistant, Pat Byrom, will help provide central coordination services for the course. Persons wishing further information about Geology 10 may contact her at 233-0181, Ext. 55.

BUILDING FUND-1969

• GOAL $ 95,000

• PLEDGED 108,140

OVER THE TOP: Members of the Foothills United Methodist Church, La Mesa have gone over the top of their $95,000 building fund drive. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Peters are shown as they prepare to cut a cake marking the top of the drive. Total pledges amounted to $108,140.

Church Drive Nets $108,000 In One Week

One of the most intensive storms in years set additional determination to expand their church building program during the recent rains.

According to the Rev. William A. Perry of the National Board of Missions, the Foothills Methodist Church in La Mesa pledged some $108,000 in funds needed for the expansion program.

The funds were raised in less than one week as 120 workers went to the homes of church members asking for their help and participation in the program.

The church group set an original goal of $95,000 for "Capital Funds Campaign" to take the initial step in an expansion of the sanctuary and church school building program.

With a theme of "Foothills faces the future," the drive will continue until 1971.

Rev. Perry said that when the rains came, undampened spirits found their way without distraction. He said "Every time that it rained, we received a storm of pledges."

Ten per cent of the funds will go to the Methodist Mission Church Building. Strong consideration is being given to a new Methodist Church in Tecate, Baja, Calif.

Pastor of the church, Rev. Floyd Zerbe, along with Bob

Peters as campaign chairman made way for the gathering of the $108,000 silver lining for the church.

Other chairmen include Fred Jabusch, visitation; John Sorbo, advanced gifts; Harvey Austin, publicity; Dorothy Relaford, production; Jon Draper, youth representative; Rosemary Bently, woman's representative, and Don Jenkins, spiritual emphasis.

The church which serves Spring Valley and La Mesa residents opened their project in one week.

GROUND BREAKING: The Trinity Presbyterian Church in Spring Valley held groundbreaking ceremonies for a new $116,000 Christian Education Center Sunday. Shown digging the first shovelful of earth in the project is the Rev. Richard K. Adams, pastor, while members of the church, project workers and the architect look on.

Presbyterians Conduct Groundbreaking Ceremonies

Ground-breaking and dedication ceremonies for a new $116,000 Christian Education facility were held Sunday, Feb. 2, at Trinity Presbyterian Church, Spring Valley. The traditional first shovelful of earth was turned over by the Rev. Richard K. Adams, pastor, and members of the church's building committee, headed by chairman Howard Gardner.

The two-story building, scheduled for completion in May, will comprise eight classrooms and will house a day school and a pre-school program of the "Head Start" variety.

It replaces the fifty-year old clubhouse of the former La Mesa Country Club which has been used as the church Sunday school since 1951.

Also participating in the ground-breaking were the Rev. Randy Lodjie, assistant pastor; John Sigurdson, architect, and John Reed, general contractor, plus children from the congregation.

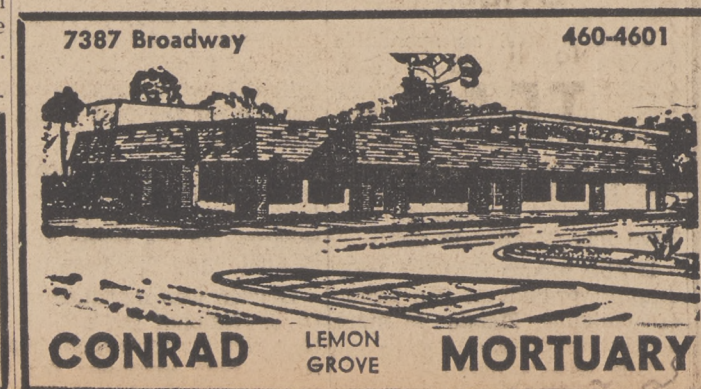

"The New Dimension," Trinity's youth folk-singing group, supplied musical selections under the direction of Richard Oliver.

Coffee, punch and cookies were served by the Women's Association of the church.

Always and Everywhere

Let no one imagine that it is a strained and unnatural thing for one to pray. The contrary is much closer to the fact. It is far more unnatural for one not to pray. Prayer is one of the most natural of human instincts. Prayer is man's response to the divine will.

PERSEVERANCE PAYS OFF

Preschool Program Gets Underway

Perseverance pays off. This was the lesson learned by the staff of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District recently this year when a call came from Sacramento informing the district that its preschool program had been approved by the State Board of Education.

According to Paul Radenheimer, acting director of program planning and development, it was Feb. 5, 1968 when Board of Education members directed Glenn E. Murdock, superintendent of schools, to have the staff draw up an application for a state-funded preschool program.

A search was then started by Mrs. Charmon Lehe, supervisor of the planned program, for classrooms for the four-year-old children.

Mrs. Lehe soon realized that there were no classrooms in any of the district's twenty schools — they were all full.

In fact, there were even some children on double session. She then began looking for other locations such as church Sunday School rooms, and even empty houses that might be for rent.

The locations were either too expensive or not suitable for the children.

Hopes faded for a preschool program and officials from the State Department of Education placed La Mesa-Spring Valley's application in the inactive file.

In Nov. the school district renewed its search for classrooms for the four-year-olds. It was learned that the Trinity Presbyterian Church, 3902 Kenwood dr., Spring Valley, had classrooms and the Rev. Richard Adams indicated a strong interest in preschool children.

The district in December reapplied for funds to operate the program and approval was received almost one year after the school board authorized the request.

Thirty children will attend the preschool classes at Trinity Presbyterian Church from Feb. 5 to June 20, 1969, Radenheimer said.

Hoberg will define the district's expulsion policy to parents.

Other panel members include Sergeant William Cook, La Mesa Police Department member, who will have a display of narcotics and drugs used by teenagers.

Robert Pyle, vice-principal of Helix High School, will give important statistics on drug use by students. The statistics are from a survey he conducted.

Convoluted Home Schedules Christmas Party In February

Christmas will be celebrated on Feb. 9 by the 846 patients at the eight Casa Blanca Convalescent Centers in San Diego County. One is at 8351 Broadway, Lemon Grove.

There were limited celebrations on Dec. 25 but there were no visitors from relatives and friends, no groups of choirs to entertain with carols, not even a visit from Santa Claus.

All of the Centers were under a self-imposed quarantine because of the Hong Kong flu.

The quarantine was 100 percent successful, according to William J. Bauer, president of Casa Blanca. The quarantine was lifted Jan. 29, he said.

The belated celebration on Feb. 9 will include a special holiday open house between the hours of two and four in the afternoon.

Social Security News

This newspaper presents this question and answer column about the Social Security program as a public service to our readers.

The questions are those most frequently asked about Social Security. The answers are provided by Sumio Ota, El Cajon Social Security District Manager.

Q. My husband died two years ago. Since I was 62 at the time, I began receiving social security widow's payments. If I should remarry, would my monthly benefits stop?

A. No. Your remarriage after age 60 would stop your payments, but the amount you get may change. You would receive either half the retirement benefits of your deceased husband, or benefits as the wife of your new husband — whichever is larger.

Q. I am recovering from a severe illness in my home. My doctor says I need a wheelchair. Can I buy one and be reimbursed by Medicare?

A. Yes, very likely. Effective Jan. 1, 1968, your medical insurance part of Medicare can help pay for either rental or purchase of durable medical equipment, such as wheelchairs or hospital beds, when prescribed by a doctor for use in your home.

Q. I get a social security retirement check each month. My wife is almost 62 and will be applying for benefits on my social security record, as she never had any covered work. Will this mean that my check will be less?

A. No. The amount of your benefit check will remain the same. Your wife's benefit will be paid in addition to the payment you get.

Q. I have an appointment to be examined for a hearing aid. Will Medicare pay for both the examination and the hearing aid?

A. No. Medicare will not pay for the hearing aid or for an examination for prescribing, fitting, or changing a hearing aid.

If you have further questions regarding the Social Security Law, contact or write the Social Security District Office, 570 North Second st., El Cajon.

The office is open from 8:30

Peanut Sale Extension Requested

The 1969 Camp Fire Girls Peanut Sale has been extended through to Sunday, Feb. 9, Mrs. Howard Harvey, associate chairman, announced today.

The annual sale, sponsored by the San Diego County Council of Camp Fire Girls, features a choice of a "Tri-Pak" of three kinds of peanuts or the new Corn Cluster nut confection. Each sells for $1.

Proceeds from the sale enhance the treasuries of the group selling, and add to the Camp Fire Girls building fund, as well as supplement the council operating budget.

The goal of the Peanut Sale is 110,000 units.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

What were some of the early Spanish institutions or governmental agencies and policies that influenced the colonial period of California?

The Spanish kings carried out the conquest of America and particularly California by offering contracts or appointments to private individuals. The "Conquistador" spearheaded the Spanish conquest. He was a military commander given wide powers to explore, conquer and govern new territories and their inhabitants.

Later, "adelantados" were given similar powers as those of the "Conquistador" but in addition were given authority to colonize and develop the territories.

Under the "encomienda" system, the "encomendero" was given powers to exploit the labor of the natives residing on land holdings given to him by the king.

We are perhaps more familiar with the "mision" as one of the chief agencies for the extension of Spanish influence in California. The "presidio" (military post) and the "pueblo" (town) became important institutions which supported the mission system and helped it to become the most popular during the colonial period.

Practice phrases related to the colonial period may be heard when you dial 276-2762 on your telephone. Try it now.

Lions Honor C. Forrest Baxter Tonight

C. FORREST BAXTER

More than 70 persons are expected to be on hand to honor C. Forrest Baxter, a member of the Lemon Grove Lions Club, tonight at 7 p.m. in the Bronze Room in La Mesa.

Baxter will be presented with a life membership award in the Lions Club. He is one of only a few persons in San Diego County to ever receive the award.

The Lemon Grove businessman has served the Lions Club since 1948 with a perfect attendance record. He was the secretary of the Lemon Grove Club in its charter year.

Baxter has also held the posts of president, vice president, deputy district governor, zone chairman for the club and as district governor.

He is the holder of a membership key award, 100 percent District Governor Award, and the Extension Award.

The first district governor in San Diego County, Rev. Kit Carson of Coronado, will be on hand to make the formal presentation to Baxter.

Rev. Carson served his first term in that post in 1940 while Baxter was club secretary of the Lemon Grove group.

Other past district governors including Walley Dorman of Lemon Grove, Clark Hatch of El Cajon and current Deputy District Governor, Robert Todd of Spring Valley will honor Baxter.

A contingent of Lions Club members from Escondido, San Diego and other areas in the county will also be there to honor the Lemon Grove man.

Baxter, who served as student speaker chairman for District 4 under Walter Harned as district governor, is owner of the Lemon Grove Sheet Metal Works.

REPRESENTS COMMUNITY

Lion's president Bob Russell said, "Baxter has represented Lemon Grove throughout this past year initiating club members in various Lions organizations in San Diego County."

"We are honored to have this award presented to a member of our Lemon Grove Lions Club. The award came from the national headquarters in Chicago."

"He has helped our club grow and has played an important part in the activities and civic functions that our organization has performed in the community through the last 20 years," Russell said.

Baxter who lives in El Cajon with his wife, Helen, is the father of B. Charles "Chuck" Baxter of Lemon Grove. He has a daughter, Mrs. Stanley Weinstein who lives in New Orleans.

RETIREES — Attorney William H. Jennings, right, accepts a copy of resolution citing 33 years of outstanding service to the Helix Irrigation District. Dear Editor:

It has been a concern of mine for some time that the student from the "average" middle class family finds himself in a difficult position when attempts to secure financial help as an entering college freshmen.

Nearly all the scholarships, grants, etc. are based on need, and for the student who comes from the family in the middle income figures there is very little help available.

Although I would be the last to deprive the needy of aid for college, it appears we are punishing the household which saves its money and moves up the financial ladder.

I have found that many young people who desire independence want to express this independence by paying their own bills in college. At a time when we often find the desire for independence expressing itself in anti-social ways, I find the desire for self-help to be a refreshing change.

Therefore, a committee of seniors from my class is attempting to prepare a booklet of helpful hints on ways young people can help themselves financially through college.

We have decided to ask the business and professional community to pass on to us any ideas, thoughts, or suggestions for young adults who desire to pay part or all of their education.

In other words, if you have any thoughts or ideas which would help a student make a few dollars or several hundred dollars, please send them to Mitchell Gegax, Bonita Vista High School, 5151 Otay Lakes rd., Chula Vista, Calif.

Perhaps your suggestion will help a student to help himself.

Sincerely,
Mitchell Gegax,
Teacher

GOPs Call On Sen. Murphy To Speak On Lincoln Day

Plans for the Feb. 12 Lincoln's Birthday luncheon at the Bahia Hotel which will feature an address by U. S. Sen. George Murphy are rapidly taking shape.

Leslie Gehres, chairman of the San Diego County Central Committee, which sponsors the annual event, said that David "Bul" Wilson will be General Chairman and Master of Ceremonies for the luncheon.

Wilson is the nephew of Congressman Bob Wilson who will introduce Sen. Murphy. His father is Dick Wilson, the 38th District Republican nominee for Congress in 1962 and 1964.

He has been a worker in Republican party activities since he was a teenager and presently is in his second term as a member of the Republican County Central Committee.

He chairs that organization's External Affairs Committee which customarily has charge of the annual Lincoln Birthday celebration.

The appearance of Sen. Murphy, recently named to the Senate Armed Services Committee, is of special interest to this Navy-oriented area. For the reason the luncheon is open to the public, particularly those persons and organizations, partisanship will be muted on this occasion.

Reservations are being accepted at the Republican Central Committee, 232-6701 and at Republican Associates, 234-3343.

The flag has flown over the capital building. Following the ceremony, the Pack will be entertained by Marie Hitchcock and her puppets.

Deddeh Asks For Reduced Voting Age

Assemblyman Wadie Deddeh has placed in the legislative hopper a proposed state constitutional amendment that would lower the voting age in California from 21 to 19.

In doing so, the local legislator stated that he was acting on his faith in the majority of California's young adults and his belief that they should be encouraged to participate in governmental affairs early in their adult life.

The proposed constitutional amendment would require a two-thirds vote of each house then ratification by a majority of the voters at a general election.

Passage would mean that the proposal would likely be on the November, 1970 ballot for the voters approval.

Deddeh, former chairman of Southwestern College's political science department, said he knows from experience that youths are "knowledgeable, responsible, and involved" at age 19.

"Many of these young people have studied government and are willing in their youth to help solve the problems facing our country," he said.

The La Mesa-Spring Valley school district has made a change in principals.

Roy E. Williams, principal of the La Presa Elementary School, will take over as principal of the La Presa Junior High School in May of this year.

In the second move approved by the board of education Monday night, William L. Pasley, vice principal of the Bancroft Elementary School will move to the La Presa Elem. School as principal in May.

Williams, 41, has been in the La Mesa School district as a teacher since 1953. At that time he was a La Mesa Jr. High science teacher.

From 1955-57 he was a teacher at S.V. Junior High, and then moved to Bancroft Elem. as a teacher and assistant to the principal for 1957-58.

Williams was principal for five years at the Rolando Elem. School. In 1965 he went to the La Presa Elem. to assume principalship there.

He is a Navy veteran. He holds a masters degree from San Diego State College.

Pasley, 40, has been in the school district in various capacities since 1959. He was a teacher at S.V. Junior High and Brier Patch Elem.

He served as ESEA Primary Language Arts Development Program counselor at La Presa and then was named as vice principal at Bancroft Elem. in 1966.

Pasley has been counselor-coordinator of the PLAD program since 1967.

The Helix varsity basketball team, in first place in the Grossmont League, will travel to El Cajon tonight as they take on El Capitan at 8 p.m. in the Vaquero gym.

In that game, the Scots led by Bill Walton who scored 22 points and picked off 14 rebounds. He was followed by Bruce Menser and Mike Dupree with 16 and 12 points respectively.

The Vaqueros were then playing without the services of guard Steve Vickery, who has returned to play after being sidelined while recuperating from knee surgery.

"Vickery is a great athlete and team leader," said Scottie coach Gordon Nash.

"They've (El Cap) found out they can win ball games, and I know that they'll be a lot tougher than the last time we played."

TAKES LEAGUE LEAD

Helix jumped into the league lead last Friday night by dumping Grossmont for the second time this season, 69-52.

Scots hit 62 percent of their shots in the second half.

Grossmont hit 24 percent, to take their seventh league win in eight starts, and nineteenth win of the season against two setbacks.

The contest was closer than the score indicates. The Highlanders were down 14-12 at the end of the first period and led only 29-27 at halftime.

Helix jumped to a 10-point advantage late in the third period.

"They've improved tremendously since the last time we played them," said Nash.

Their first game was easily won by the Scots, 94-62.

"They had the advantages of their own gym," continued Nash. "They had a partisan crowd and were used to playing in the small confines of their gym."

FULL COURT PRESS

It was the first time in which the full court press has been effective against the Highlanders this season, as it caused several turnovers at mid-court.

"It was the worst we've played against the press," said Nash. "Our boys were tight and we were passing to the wrong places."

Earlier in the week, the Scots nudged Mt. Miguel, 60-48, to remain tied for first place with Grossmont. Walton played his best overall game of the season.

He scored 21 points and hauling in 33 rebounds, setting a new Helix record for rebounds in a single game. The old record of 30 was held by Rick Barnes.

"This was by far his best game," said Nash. "He did a tremendous job especially on Ken Barstow."

Barstow, who received second team all-CIF honors last year and was currently the leading scorer in the league, was held to 12 points and had six shots blocked by the Helix junior.

Matmen Face Busy Weekend Schedule

By TOM WARREN
Helix Sports Writer

It will be a busy weekend for the Helix matmen, as they take on El Capitan High tomorrow night, and Madison High Saturday.

Both contests will take place on the Highlander mats, with the varsity matches getting underway at 8 p.m. tomorrow and 3 p.m. Saturday.

"Tomorrow night's match will pit Helix, with a 3-2 league record, and a third place standing, against a sixth place Vaquero squad which has managed only one win in five tries."

The only victory the Lakeside grapplers have achieved came last week when they crushed Granite Hills, 41-10.

Saturday's match, a non-league skirmish, should be a tough one for the Scot wrestlers.

Despite the fact that they lost to University, 25-15, last Friday, the Warhawks are rated very highly by Highlander wrestling coach Bob Lucas.

"We always get a tough match from the city teams," said Lucas, "and Madison is one of the best in the city."

DROP GROSSMONT, 35-10

Last Friday the Highland grapplers soundly defeated Grossmont, 25-10.

"We won it on the take-downs," Lucas said regarding the match. Helix chalked up 12 in that department to the Foothillers' one.

Leading the Scot wrestlers in the match with pins were Buddy Bertsch in the 105 pound weight class, and 140-pounder Dennis Leslie. Leslie pinned his man 5:58 into his match, while Bertsch did it in 3:52.

Winning on decisions for Helix were Tim Shaeffer (13-0), Billy Vaughn (6-4), Larry Davidson (13-5), Mark Whitlock (2-0), Dale Sauter (9-4), and Dave Hoff (5-2).

Heavyweight Mike Odom tied in his match with Frank Proctor, 2-2, and 97-pounder Mitch Steinauer won by forfeit.

Coach Lucas singled out the wrestling of Hoff and Sauter as outstanding, and called Sauter's victory his, "best match of the year."

The Highlander junior varsity won a closely fought match with the Foothillers, 22-21.

Board Posts

trend will continue, he said.

Override tax funds will be called for vote this fall if additional state aid is not forthcoming. Netzel told the board that costs per student in this district are $50 a year less than in other districts of comparable size.

Decision on the override will partly impinge on the outcome of a suit filed in the interest of the L.G. School District by Max Goodwin, a local taxpayer, against the State of California for a total of $125,000 that had been "nibbled" from federal impact funds by the state during the past five years.

Season Rain Totals 8.84

Approximately .01 inches of rain had fell by press time Wednesday to bring the season total to 8.84 according to Fireman Bob Adams, local meteorologist.

Last Wednesday, a storm bowed out with a .15 inches performance for that day. Friday .03 inches was recorded. Yesterday's .01 recording brought the season total to 8.84—more than 1.50 inches ahead of last year's 7.27 inches for the same date.

Real Estate Trends Slow Down During Christmas Season

James C. Downs, Jr., editor, of San Diego County Real Estate Trends, monthly publication of Title Insurance and Trust Company said that, "Real estate sales in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley-La Mesa area were down during the month of Dec."

"A total of 238 sales were recorded, the previous month 245 and in Dec. a year ago 290 were recorded for the area."

"The backlog of demand in most categories of space (especially residential) cannot be erased during 1969, even if present high construction levels are maintained."

Construction Peak Continuation Seen

Residential construction will remain high in 1969 even though shortages of credit will pose some problems in the early part of the year.

"That's the word from Bank of America in its latest report on the housing outlook in California."

National economic growth is slowing and this trend could become more pronounced, bank economists said.

"This would reduce inflationary pressures and set the stage for easier monetary policy and increased availability of mortgage funds."

"Under these conditions, the flow of savings into lending institutions should hold up, providing for a growth in mortgage credit. This should insure a strong recovery during the second half of 1969. Housing starts in California for the year are expected to rise above 180,000 units."

Meanwhile, housing starts in the state reached a seasonally adjusted rate of 177,000 units in November, tops for 1968. The figure, representing actual starts as opposed to number of units authorized by building permits, is provided exclusively by Bank of America.

Fire Calls Drop At Grove Department

Outside activities of the Lemon Grove Fire Department for the week of Jan. 27-Feb. 3, amounted to one rescue run.

"David T. Young, 26, of 8418 Golden ave., was given oxygen and taken to University Hospital, after he complained of severe chest pains."

Parkers Sell La Mesa SCOUT Newspaper

Allan Kolber, former editor of the Monterey Park Progress, has purchased the La Mesa Scout from Mr. and Mrs. Douglas K. Parker.

The Scout was purchased by the Parkers four years ago from Milton Wick of Scotts Dale.

The plant, located at 8242 La Mesa Blvd., publishes a weekly newspaper, a shopper, and four high school newspapers.

Other owners in recent years have been James Hill and Virginia Mitchell.

The Scout was published at one time by Carlyle Reed who is now published of the Sacramento Union.

VFW Commander Urges Veterans Preference

The Commander of the VFW Post 2082 of Lemon Grove called on local employers to give returning veterans preference when they have jobs to fill.

In reporting on the "employ the new veteran" resolution passed by his post on Jan. 14, 1969, Cdr. MacDonald said that action by employers in Lemon Grove would benefit the community and the veteran as well as the employers.

He pointed out that prompt employment of veterans helps a community retain stability. The employer gains by getting "dependable" men with a strong desire to begin their careers, establish households and settle down to raise families."

Cdr. Wiley MacDonald said that President Johnson in a special veterans message to Congress last January called for a Congressional resolution asking employers to voluntarily give veterans preference in hiring. Both Houses of Congress responded without dissent.

The VFW 2082 resolution was an endorsement of the Congressional resolution, he said.

ALL SYSTEMS GO: Robert Brady, principal at Monte Vista High School displays the third and final stage of the stadium complex at the Spring Valley High School. Brady said that the third phase of the complex is a swimming pool. The Grossmont Union High School District gave the school the green light to go ahead with plans for the $19,194 pool. Cost of the pool will come from donations in the community.

Brady said that the pool will be used as a community pool and not strictly for school events. Members of the Monte Vista Swimming Assoc., who spearheaded the program, will meet Monday night at the school at 8 p.m. to discuss financial plans and look over architect's plans for the pool. Any persons interested in the program are encouraged to attend according to Mrs. L. V. Julihn, chairman of the organization.

Mount Miguel Trims Monte Vista, 75-65 In Near Upset

By SCOTT MCGAUGH
Monte Vista Sports Writer

The Monte Vista High School basketball squad nearly pulled their second upset of the season last Friday in a seemingly superior Mt. Miguel team resembled an "instant replay" of the first battle between the teams.

In the 75-65 loss, the Monarchs led with five minutes remaining in the third quarter. The Matadors came alive on offense to put the game on ice.

In their previous encounter, the Monarchs were out in front at the half and midway into the third period before the Matadors took over to win.

The game was tied Friday at the half, 34-34, as a rugged Monarch defense stymied Mt. Miguel's much-heralded Ken Barstow.

The Matador offense came to life in the second half behind Ken Barstow, John Woodward, and Charlie Gregg.

Woodward led all scorers with 26 points as Barstow added 16, eight of which came in the final quarter. Leading scorers for Monte Vista were Jim Bristol with 20 and Bob Papciak with 14. The loss put the Monarchs in a tie for third place in the Grossmont League with Santana Sultans with a 4-4 record.

In earlier action, the Monarchs came back from a poor start to chalk up a 71-65 victory over the hapless Granite Hills Eagles despite 40-point scoring rampage by Tim Doerr.

Monte Vista trailed 18-14 at the end of the first quarter due to some chilled outside shooting.

Monarch scoring leader Bill Belander got warmed up in the second period to give the Monarchs a 27-23 lead going into the second half.

The league's premiere scorers in Belander and Doerr matched baskets until the fourth period when Doerr couldn't miss and scored 17 points in the final quarter.

Belander finished with 24 to lead the Monarchs.

Equipment Theft Jails S.V. Man

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Two men, one of them a Spring Valley resident, almost got their stories to coincide on how they acquired $400 worth of welding equipment stolen from a firm at Brown Field.

Larry Ray Peres, of 445 Paraiso ave., Spring Valley and Anthony Barnett of San Diego, both said it was acquired at a swap meet but one said National City and the other said El Cajon.

Superior Court Judge William Glen gave each of them a term of incarceration. Barnett for 90 days in the honor camp and 5 years probation. Peres got 60 days in jail and three years probation.

Both men worked for the equipment company early last year. Both pleaded guilty to receiving stolen property — but only after drinking at one of their homes.
